Management Comment

Eyal Harari, CEO of Allot, commented, "We are very pleased with our turnaround and continued strong improvements throughout 2025. For the year, we drove double-digit revenue growth, our highest profit in over a decade, and strong operating cash flow. Our growth was primarily driven by continued excellent performance from our cybersecurity solutions."

Mr. Harari continued, "We are advancing strongly with our cybersecurity-first strategy and developing products that bring together cybersecurity and network intelligence into a single, integrated solution. As the global AI transformation continues to accelerate, AI-driven threats and new attack surface are increasing the demand for our always-on, zero-effort security embedded in the network. Allot's advantages are resonating with customers, clearly differentiating us in the market and driving meaningful growth."

Concluded Mr. Harari, "Given the continued growth in our cybersecurity business, strong visibility, and a solid backlog, our momentum is set to continue. In 2026, we expect SECaaS to deliver robust double-digit ARR growth and guiding for revenues to grow to between $113 and $117 million, with continued profitability improvements."

Performance Metrics

* SECaaS ARR – measures the current annual recurring SECaaS revenues, which is calculated based on estimated revenues for the month of December 2025 and multiplied by 12.

 Total cash - cash and cash equivalents, bank deposits, restricted deposits and investments.

GAAP to Non-GAAP Reconciliation:

The difference between GAAP and non-GAAP revenues is related to the acquisitions made by the Company and represents revenues adjusted for the impact of the fair value adjustment to acquired deferred revenue related to purchase accounting. Non-GAAP net income is defined as GAAP net income after including deferred revenues related to the fair value adjustment resulting from purchase accounting and excluding stock-based compensation expenses, amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets, deferred tax asset adjustment and changes in taxes-related items.

These non-GAAP measures should be considered in addition to, and not as a substitute for, comparable GAAP measures. The non-GAAP results and a full reconciliation between GAAP and non-GAAP results is provided in the accompanying Table 2. The Company provides these non-GAAP financial measures because management uses the non-GAAP measures internally to evaluate the Company's ongoing performance. Accordingly, the Company believes they are useful to investors in enhancing an understanding of the Company's operating performance.

Safe Harbor Statement

This release contains forward-looking statements, which express the current beliefs and expectations of Company management. Such statements involve a number of known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause our future results, performance or achievements to differ significantly from the results, performance or achievements set forth in such forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include risks relating to: our accounts receivables, including our ability to collect outstanding accounts and assess their collectability on a quarterly basis; our ability to meet expectations with respect to our financial guidance and outlook; our ability to compete successfully with other companies offering competing technologies; the loss of one or more significant customers; consolidation of, and strategic alliances by, our competitors; government regulation; the timing of completion of key project milestones which impact the timing of our revenue recognition; lower demand for key value-added services; our ability to keep pace with advances in technology and to add new features and value-added services; managing lengthy sales cycles; operational risks associated with large projects; our dependence on fourth party channel partners for a material portion of our revenues; and other factors discussed under the heading "Risk Factors" in the Company's annual report on Form 20-F filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Forward-looking statements in this release are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are made only as of the date hereof, and the company undertakes no obligation to update or revise the forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
