Allot Receives Two Orders for its 100GE Service Gateway Tera and Value-Added Services Totaling $5M

With the larger order coming from a new customer, Allot continues to leverage its unique propositions - deep video analytics and advance security products

HOD HASHARON, Israel, November 10, 2014 /PRNewswire/ --

Allot Communications Ltd. (NASDAQ, TASE: ALLT), a leading global provider of intelligent broadband solutions that empower communication service providers to optimize and monetize their networks, enterprises to enhance productivity and consumers to improve their digital lifestyle experience, today announced that it has secured two orders totaling $5M.

The first order comes from a new customer. This Tier-1 operator ordered the Allot Service Gateway Tera with 100GE interfaces and capacity. The operator will be using Allot Service Gateway Tera's extreme scalability to handle very high traffic loads and manage growing subscriber volume and usage. The customer also selected Allot's ServiceProtector to protect against distributed denial of service (DDoS) attacks.

The second order was placed by a Tier-1 operator for Allot ClearSee Data Source and Allot ClearSee Network Analytics. Allot's video analytics will provide the operator with a 360 degree view of usage trends and enable multi-dimensioning by subscriber, network element, content provider, device, video format, resolution and more for improved performance. The operator will also use Allot's solutions to extract and apply contextual marketing promotions across its network to ensure a high quality of experience (QoE) for subscribers using video and other applications.

"Allot helps operators to manage the increasing demand that subscribers are placing on their networks. Allot's solutions allow operators to identify and leverage network intelligence for analyzing and improving service delivery and user experience," said Gary Drutin, Chief Customer Officer at Allot Communications. "We are pleased to see growing adoption of our Service Gateway Tera and Value-Added Services."
